Dear Parent / Guardian

Re: Macbeth or Much Ado About Nothing

After February half term, dependant on your child's group, Year 10 students will be studying either Macbeth or Much Ado About Nothing in English Literature. This is an exam text and students will need to provide their own copy. Your child's teacher will advise them which book needs to be purchased. The copy purchased must be un-annotated, but not necessarily new. However, we do ask that you use the ISBN reference number to ensure that all students have the same edition; it is very difficult in lessons to manage the page numbers when using different editions. An image of the front cover is also detailed for ease in purchasing the book.

Copies can be purchased from retailers on the Internet, often for as little as 1p second-hand, plus postage.

If your child is currently eligible for Free School Meals/has in the past been on Free School Meals since 2009 / is currently or has been a Child in Service since January 2011 / is currently a Cared for Child or has ever been looked after by an English or Welsh local authority then the book will be paid for through the Pupil Premium Fund. If your form is returned to school and we don't appear to have your child on our Pupil Premium records we may need to contact you to clarify.

It is the policy of Brine Leas to support families when financial hardship may preclude a student from purchasing books, therefore if you would like to request any assistance, please contact Mrs K Bradshaw and the matter will be dealt with confidentially.

Finally, may I take this opportunity to thank you for your on-going support.

Yours faithfully
