

June 2018

Dear Parent/Guardian,

From September, all Year 10 students (then in Year 11) will be studying the play 'An Inspector Calls' by J. B. Priestley for English Literature. This is an examination text and students will need to provide their own copy. The copy purchased will need to be un-annotated, but not necessarily new. However, we would appreciate it if you could use the ISBN reference number below to ensure that all students have the same edition; it is very difficult in lessons to manage the page numbers when using different editions. An image of the front cover is shown for ease.

We have chosen this edition because it appears to be the easiest and cheapest version available. As with the novel, copies can be purchased from retailers on the Internet, often as little as 1p second-hand, plus postage.

To accompany the play, you may also like to purchase a revision guide - York Notes or Letts Guide are two of the best and again, these can be picked up relatively cheaply second-hand. However, please do not purchase the film of the play for your child to watch; this production is very different from the original script.

If your child is currently eligible for Free School Meals / has in the past been on Free School Meals since 2011 / is currently a Child in Service since January 2011/ is currently a Cared for Child or has ever been looked after by an English or Welsh local authority then some assistance can be applied for through the Pupil Premium Fund. Please return the slip attached with the Pupil Premium assistance application ticked. The school will contact you to advise what assistance is available. If your form is returned to school showing the Pupil Premium option and we don't appear to have your child on our Pupil Premium records we may need to contact you to clarify. Please return no later than Friday 29th June 2018.

It is the policy of Brine Leas to support families when financial hardship may preclude a student from purchasing books, therefore if you would like to request any assistance, please contact Mrs K Bradshaw and the matter will be dealt with confidentially

Yours faithfully

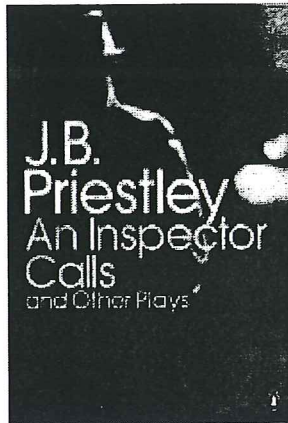

Ms S. Meredith
