November 2017

Dear Parents/Guardians

The deadline for GCSE and A Level Art re-marking has now passed and all students' coursework and examination pieces are now ready for collection. Work from all Art/Ceramics groups will be available for collection between 3:15pm and 5:00pm on Tuesday 21st November 2017.

Students collecting coursework are reminded that the Art Department asks for a small contribution towards the cost of materials used during their course of study. This does not cover the full cost but is a small contribution towards replenishing stocks. The cost of Art work is £4 and Ceramics is £6.

I am aware that some students paid for the return of their work before they left school in May and their Art teacher will have a record of this.

Unfortunately due to the lack of storage space uncollected Art work can only be kept until Friday 15th December 2017 and then disposed of to make room for this year's GCSE and A Level coursework. If there is a problem collecting the work on the given date please do not hesitate to contact the Art Department on the above number and we shall try to make alternative arrangements.

We look forward to seeing you.

Yours faithfully

Mr D Boulton
