Re: Shakespeare Schools Festival

Dear Parent/Guardian,

I am writing to inform you of the next stage in the 2017 Shakespeare Schools Festival. As you know, your child will be performing in our production of 'Twelfth Night' taking place on Thursday 23rd November 2017 at The Lyceum Theatre, Crewe.

As part of the Festival journey, your child has been taking part in rehearsals at school and working hard to create an exciting performance for the festival.

On the performance day, our cast will spend half a day at the theatre for a technical and dress rehearsal, fully supported by a professional theatre director, and sound and lighting technicians. In the evening, your child, with their cast mates will join students from other local schools as each perform their own abridged Shakespeare play in front of friends, family and the local community!

Rehearsal times and information on purchasing tickets is detailed below:

Company rehearsal: Thursday 23rd November 2017, 1.30pm – 5.00pm.

Performance: Thursday 23rd November 2017, 7.00pm – 10.00pm

Your child will need to meet the coach at the front of school at 12.30pm on the day of the performance. The rehearsal will run in the afternoon which will then be followed by a break when we will have time to eat or purchase refreshments. Students may wish to bring a packed tea for an evening meal or money to buy food near to the theatre.

The first performance will start at 7.00pm and the evening will end at approximately 10.00pm. If you are not watching the performance, please ensure your child is collected from the theatre at the end of the evening.

The group will be accompanied to the theatre with myself and our Associate Teacher, Ms Taylor; no male staff will be present.

If you would like your child to take part in this workshop please complete the permission slip attached and return to me as soon as possible.
