Trade charity the Fashion and Textile Children's Trust (FTCT) has launched its annual grant to help low-income families working in the UK fashion and textile industry with Back to School costs.

Funds are available for uniform, including PE kits enabling children starting school to feel confident and ready for learning despite their home circumstances.

Grants are available for children up to 18 years of age whose parent/carer works or has previously worked at least one year in the fashion or textile industry. More details on the uniform grants can be found on the FTCT website.
