

GCSE German Revision information

Board: AQA <https://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/languages/gcse/german-8668>

You should have:

- ✓ Notes in your Course Handbook
- ✓ Booklets for each topic within the three themes
- ✓ Workbooks from each group of lessons
- ✓ Vocabulary lists for each topic
- ✓ Exam preparation booklets
- ✓ All of these accessible via Teams in the resources section.

You may have:

A revision guide, workbook or translation practice workbook, that have been purchased. We would recommend the CGP revision guides.

How can you revise for this subject?

1. Make sure you understand the set up of the exam and how you are assessed.
2. Use each booklet's 'revise' section.
3. Read past papers and the example answers to see what has been awarded marks and why.
4. Complete 40 & 90 /90 & 150 word paragraphs and get them marked (there are past questions on the website above or you can get them from your teacher).
5. Keep on practising your translation skills.
6. Write pieces to describe photographs. Go back through your paragraphs – have you written in full sentences? Have you checked your spellings? Have your nouns got capital letters? Have you checked your word order?
7. Listen to German radio / watch television with the sound in German.
8. Make sure you have solid answers to your speaking questions and make sure you have learnt them!
9. Work through your revision guide and workbook.
